

Asia-Pacific (5th)

Pakistan (138th) is one of the least prosperous countries in Asia-Pacific. It is ranked 167th in the world for Natural Environment, 150th for Safety and Security, and 143rd for Education. Though improving, rates of primary and secondary school completion remain low, at 58% and 46% respectively.

India (101st) has seen a great improvement in its Social Capital. Trust in key institutions such as local police, banks, the judicial system and courts, and the national government has increased by ten percentage points since 2011.

Papua New Guinea (128th) is the country in Asia-Pacific whose prosperity has deteriorated the most over the last ten years. It has experienced a significant deterioration in its Health, with immunisation rates falling. The proportion of children receiving hepatitis immunisations has fallen from 65% in 2011 to just 37%, the lowest rate anywhere in the world.
